

I am a ham radio operator and in support of the 60 Meter allocation that ARRL has requested but I would like to see the new allocation open to ALL ham operators. This would allow for the quicker use of the frequencys. It would also let Tech see what the HF band are all about. Thank you.